6:00 p.m., 30 March 2021, Chair Wayne Olson called to order the duly posted and published hearing. Members present: Supervisor Marshall Pearson, Supervisor Jeff Schlaeger, Zoning Administrator John Kemen, and Clerk Duane Swanson. Social distancing was observed, and masks were worn.

Chair Olson declared the purpose of this public hearing was to receive testimony on the proposed assessment of taxes upon property at 4843 Brunswick Road, Braham, Minnesota (PID #29.0181.000) for costs associated with the abatement of nuisance and land use violations. The affected landowners had been informed of this hearing by regular and certified mail that they had a right to be heard before action was taken by this board. No written or oral comments had been received by the clerk.

Chair Olson called for comment from the public. No comments were offered. Chair Olson then called for comments from the board. Clerk Swanson reviewed the history of the issues and actions concerning this property, noting that town legal counsel had drafted documents leading up to and including the current Resolution Adopting Assessment.

Chair Olson again called for public comment and none was offered. Supervisor Schlaeger moved, Supervisor Pearson seconded, to adopt Resolution 2021-3, A Resolution Adopting Assessment and the assessment roll attached to it, authorizing the assessment of $5,295.77, payable over five (5) years with an interest rate of eight (8) per cent. The motion carried unanimously. Said documents are made a part of these minutes.

Chair Olson moved, Supervisor Schlaeger seconded, to direct the clerk to file the resolution, assessment roll, and other associated paperwork as may be required with the County Auditor. The motion carried unanimously.

At 6:14 p.m., Supervisor Schlaeger moved, Supervisor Pearson seconded, to adjourn the hearing. The motion carried unanimously.

Respectfully submitted,

Duane P. Swanson, Clerk
